

DONATION FORM

If you would like to help fight canine bone cancer, your tax-deductible donation to The Kate Koogler Canine Cancer Fund will be greatly appreciated.

All proceeds will be donated to a study currently under way titled "Genetics of Canine Cancer". Researchers are looking for answers to why primarily large breed dogs are affected by bone cancer and more specifically why certain breeds seem to be over represented.

It is our sincere hope that studies like these will help reduce the incidence of these dreaded cancers in our four legged friends.
